

ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND MEN IN DEADLY STRUGGLE

Fate of Russia and Japan Rests in the Result of the Deadly Battle Now Raging Between Determined Foes on the Plains Close to Yentai

ST PETERSBURG.—THE FRONTAL ATTACK ON THE YENTAI MINES NOW IN PROGRESS HAS DEVELOPED A DESPERATE BATTLE IN WHICH 100,000 MEN ARE ENGAGED, BUT, THOUGH THE DISPATCHES DEAL ALMOST EXCLUSIVELY WITH THIS FEATURE OF BATTLE, IT IS POINTED OUT THAT THERE IS A MUCH WIDER FIELD INVOLVED. THE FIGHT ON THE RUSSIAN LEFT FLANK HAS NOT YET DEVELOPED POSSIBLY IT IS HERE THAT KUROPATKIN INTENDS TO DEVELOP THE BLOW.

WHAT FORCE IS PUSHING FORWARD IN THIS DIRECTION BEHIND THE SCREEN CONTAINING THE COLUMN AT SHAKITINADZE IS UNKNOWN, BUT FROM THE APPEARANCE TONIGHT OF A RUSSIAN COLUMN AT TZIANCHAN, THIRTY MILES SOUTHEAST OF YENTAI STRIKING AT OYAMA'S COMMUNICATIONS WITH THE YALU, AND THE KNOWLEDGE THAT ANOTHER COLUMN HAS ALREADY CROSSED THE TAITSE RIVER, EVIDENCE OF THE WIDE NATURE OF THE TURNING MOVEMENT CAN BE REALIZED.

It is possible that the attack now on at the Yentai mines may simply be intended to hold the main Japanese force stationary and that the outcome of the Yentai fight may have little bearing on the result of a general engagement. While it is now asserted that Kuropatkin enjoys considerable superior force numerically the main fear expressed is that this superiority is insufficient to enable him to carry out the big operations he has undertaken.

Apprehension is caused by a Tokio dispatch saying that General Oyama reports that he is gaining ground and has cut off the Russian column below the Taitse river. It is only natural, after repeated reverses already suffered, that the Russians fully realize how much Kuropatkin has at stake on his assumption of the offensive.

The battle now in progress undoubtedly will outweigh in importance the hard fighting at Liao Yang, for Kuropatkin's victory, partial or complete, is necessary. Defeat would certainly spell ruin for his military reputation and probably prove a disaster of the first magnitude to the Russian army.

If the Japanese should roll up Kuropatkin's advance now, all hope of aggressive Russian success in this campaign or of the relief of Port Arthur would be ended probably for this year, but Russian success now means a winter campaign and immensely enhanced prestige, not only for Kuropatkin personally, but for Russian arms in Manchuria, in the eyes of the Chinese, which is an important factor.

MUKDEN, Oct 12—Stubborn fighting is still in progress, this being the third day of the engagement. It is impossible at this time to say what has been accomplished.

Hospital trains are continually arriving from the south. The wounded are being sent farther north.

...A Delicate Throat...

Probably you haven't had any trouble for several months, but you may have now. Cool nights and snappy mornings may bring unpleasant reminders of your delicate throat. If you grow hoarse without any apparent reason, if an ugly little hack arises, take Cann's White Pine Cough Syrup at once. It soothes and heals, it drives away that raspy soreness in the throat. Best of all it prevents those severe spasms of coughing which are so likely to produce soreness of the lungs.

They were being shipped from Seattle to Japan. Just how much has been damaged is not known. It is said that the company will institute a thorough investigation regarding the cause of the wreck.

SPARKS IS SOLID FOR DEMOCRACY

County Candidates Cheered to the Echo at a Rousing Meeting Held Last Evening

Raines' hall was packed to the doors last evening when the Democratic Silver nominees of the county ticket opened their campaign at Sparks. Even the Bryan meeting held a few weeks ago was exceeded and from the time that Major H. W. Patton, candidate for the Assembly, called the meeting to order until the closing remarks of B. A. P. Johnson, of Elko county, the applause showed that the people of the new state, city of Reno will be found in the Democratic ranks when its maiden vote is counted on the eighth day of November next.

There was no effort to drum up enthusiasm. No brass band paraded the streets and bonfires did not call attention to the meeting. Such display was not necessary. The people knew of the meeting and they turned out en masse to give their favorite candidates a rousing reception. They certainly succeeded.

Major Patton is a bright and entertaining speaker. He called the meeting to order in a few well chosen remarks his townsmen tendering him an ovation at the conclusion of his address.

L. B. Sells, candidate for the Assembly was the first speaker. He spoke on the labor question and handled the subject like a man who not only understands that issue, but whose heart is set on righting the wrongs the Republican party has and is inflicting upon the workingman. He was enthusiastically received.

Hon. P. A. McCarran, the standard bearer of the Fusion party in Washoe county, was next introduced. The young man's popularity was evinced by the warm reception he received. Everyone in Washoe county knows Mr. McCarran, but it is safe to say there are none who have a more friendly feeling for him than the old residents of Wadsworth, and they were out in force last evening. Mr. McCarran first took up national issues, dwelling at length upon the recent remarks of Senator Fairbanks in Reno, Colorado affairs were not overlooked and in speaking of the Republican party's attitude toward the laboring man in that State said:

Harrison's visit lasted two hours and when he left Parker he said laughingly: "I came to deliver the electoral vote of Illinois, Wisconsin and Indiana."

HOUSE VOTE ON THE IRRIGATION BILL

Nevada Republicans have made the claim that the Irrigation Law was passed in a Republican House and Senate. Here is how they passed it in the House. The vote is taken from the Congressional Record.

Democrats—
 For Passage 78
 Against Passage 13
 Total 91

Republicans—
 For Passage 68
 Against Passage 42
 Total 110

Democratic plurality for passage, TEN.
 Republican majority for defeat, TWENTY-NINE.

WHY IT IS SO.

THE Gazette publishes the denial of Senator Stewart that he is or will be a candidate for re-election in the event of the election of a Republican legislature, and in a lengthy editorial makes a piteous appeal to the people of Nevada to extend the glad hand of welcome to the aged Senator. That Senator Stewart is the best hated public man that has ever made a track on the soil of Nevada is due exclusively to his own acts. It is a well-known fact that his last election was accomplished by most outrageous means and methods and in opposition to the wishes of a large majority of the people of the state who elected a legislature, a majority of which was in opposition to his candidacy which was only made successful by the spitting away of a Republican member, and the votes of a number of legislators who were pledged in opposition to him which votes could certainly not have been obtained by any honorable means. Then right upon the heels of his re-election he deserted the party to which he owed so much and was the first, when he should have been the last, to abandon the cause which he had so long professed to cherish and the advocacy of which was his sole recommendation to the people of Nevada. The Journal has never believed that Senator Stewart was a candidate for re-election at this time, if for no other reason that he has too much sense and judgment to attempt what he, as everybody else knows, would be an impossibility, and this paper has never troubled itself with conjectures as to the object of his present visit to the state, except perhaps to indulge the hope that the Republican leaders in Nevada, who have suppressed his speech making organs for the last four years, will remove the bridle and give him full permission to canvass the state for the Republican national, state and legislative tickets

GOVERNOR SPARKS' REPUBLICAN FRIENDS

IF the people were allowed to vote directly for United States Senators, it is a conservative estimate that Governor John Sparks would receive at least three-fourths of the votes cast in Washoe county, and there is no reason why the fusion legislative nominees, who are pledged to his support, should not be elected by the same proportionate majority. The election of United States Senator is the only political matter that is likely to come before the next legislature, the fusion candidates for State Senator and Assemblymen will certainly compare favorably, in points of integrity and ability, with those of the Republican party there is no particular difference in the two county platforms upon local matters, nor any other cause why Republicans friendly to Governor Sparks' election should not vote for his legislative ticket as readily as for him personally, if his success could be accomplished by "so doing."

WONT FORGET IT.

THE friends of ex-Senator John F. Jones are not likely to waim up to any great extent over Colonel Nixon's candidacy for United States Senator. They will not be apt to forget that at the last election of Senator Jones, who was the nominee of the Silver Party and who made and won his fight as such, Mr. Nixon bobbed up as a candidate in the legislature and endeavored by every means in his power to accomplish his defeat, although at the time Mr. Nixon professed to be a true and loyal member of the party of which Senator Jones was the recognized candidate and nominee. If, according to the adage, "chickens come home to roost," it is more than likely that a whole lot of Jones' chickens will make themselves exceedingly troublesome to Colonel Nixon during his present candidacy.

By getting together and comparing notes the cattle raiser and the beef consumer might be able to locate the gentlemen who are getting all the boasted prosperity "rake-off."

SAILORS FIGHT CHINESE LABOR.

BY those who take interest in such matters it will be remembered that when the last Chinese exclusion bill was before the house I secured the adoption of several amendments making the bill more thoroughly exclusive of every species of Chinese labor to prevent their competition with American labor. Among these amendments was one which prevented American ship owners from employing Chinese sailors. The bill as it passed the house was what the laboring classes wanted. The senate passed a much milder bill, more favorable to the Chinese. When the conference committee met I tried to force this anti-Chinese sailor clause back into the bill. The committee was Republican in the ratio of two to one, and under the leadership of the Republican Senator Platt of Connecticut it refused to replace the aforesaid clause in the bill. The news from San Francisco shows that I was right in my contention.

The Pacific mail steamer Siberia recently brought to San Francisco 270 coolies to be used in manning the new steamer Manchuria. These coolies were brought from Hongkong under contract. They are now on the Manchuria which is engaged in making its first trip to Asia. The Attorney General has held in two recent cases that this is lawful because there is no actual landing on American soil, that the coolies were transferred from the deck of one vessel to the deck of another in the harbor. How the Attorney General can escape the fact that the United States has unquestioned jurisdiction inside the three mile limit is past my comprehension. He admits that the exclusion law protects the longshoreman on the dock, but decides that it does not protect the sailor on the deck of the vessel a few feet away, with the American flag above his head. The Chinese work for wages upon which a white man would starve and there is a crying need for the protection of the American seaman from this competition. If a Democratic congress is elected this fall I think I could safely guarantee the passage of such a law. We came very near winning the last time the question was up.—Champ Clark

WILL NEVER HAPPEN

GEORGE MURDITH, the English novelist, now 75 years of age, says

"Some day the present day conditions will be changed, and marriage will be allowed for a certain period perhaps ten years."

Church and society and human sentiment will revolt at this idea and the "some time" to which he refers will be so far in the future that the name of George Murdith will have passed from the memory of man. One of the most widely read and most greatly admired poems in the world ends

WOMAN DIES IN CHAIR CAR

Mrs. E. O. Barnes Passes Away Near Lamar on Train No. 5

Mrs. E. V. Barnes a passenger on No. 5 died yesterday morning of lung trouble as the train was nearing Lamar. At the time of her death she was travelling with her son-in-law and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Hann of Lewiston, N. C. She was a woman 65 years old, and her daughter accompanied her to see that she should receive proper care.

She had been afflicted with lung trouble and was going to Los Angeles in the hopes that the warm climate of Southern California would prove beneficial to her. She bore the hardships of the long journey fairly well, but at Lamar she walked across the car to get a glass of water. While drinking she passed away. Her friends tried to revive her but it was useless. It is supposed that the high altitude of the mountain country affected her, and was the immediate cause of her death.

An examination of her body shortly afterwards showed that there was no money or valuables on her person. The body was left at Lovelock, and the Coroner was notified to take charge of it. The jury impaneled by the Coroner decided that her death was caused by heart failure.

G. E. Snyder of the Oberon, at Sparks and E. D. Williams departed for Goldfield yesterday morning where they will try their fortunes in the new gold camps. Both gentlemen are interested in the Gold Hill mine of that place, and if indications count for anything, a mill will be erected on the property in the near future.

On the Chain Gang

Hugh Williams, a worthless character, who has been drunk around Sparks for several days, and has been disturbing the peace of some of its citizens, was arrested yesterday on a charge of being drunk. He came up before Judge Pollock and will have a job on the chain gang, for the next twenty days.

Funeral Today

The funeral of the late Mrs. Anna Buchanan will take place from the family residence at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. The interment will be in Odd Fellows cemetery. Rev. Welch, of the Methodist church will have charge of the services.

"ON THE BRIDGE AT MIDNIGHT" SATURDAY

Although the story of George Klump's $10,000 scenic production of "On the Bridge at Midnight" deals with the search for a kidnapped child, it has none of those cheap methods of sensationalism so common among the dramas of today. On its visit here it brings a most marvelous collection of scenery, the famous jack-knife bridge scene from which the play derives its name. In this scenic working model carpenter has reached the acme of his art, and shows a perfectly unique jack-knife bridge used in many cities along the Great Lakes, and shows the same in full working order, opening and allowing a steamer to pass through the draw. And not alone is this the only attraction in this sumptuous production, the play itself is one of the most beautiful comedy dramas of the day, the principal characters that of Germany, the professor, and "Reddy," the bootblack, lend an interest in the play that is both truthful and interesting, they change from tears to laughter at will. The company is one of the most evenly balanced attractions traveling. This magnificent production will be at McKissick's opera house on Saturday evening. Seats now on sale at Rosenthal & Armanko's.

Storm About Over.

The weather bureau holds out hope for good weather for the next few days at least. The forecast for today is fair and warmer.

A Judicious Inquiry

A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine, whether it was wanted for a child or for an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know

TO HOLD FUNERAL OF GEO. HEROLD TODAY

The funeral of the late George Herold who died at Deiby last Saturday from the effects of exposure and alcoholism will take place from Perkins & Oliver's undertaking parlors today at 10:30 o'clock. Relatives of the deceased have been notified of his death, but will not arrive from Chicago in time to attend his funeral.

The deceased was a friend of Chas. Frisch of this city and Mr. Frisch has taken charge of the funeral. He says that the young man comes from a wealthy family in the "Windy City" and that for several years he occupied a first class position in one of the large packing houses. He began to drink about a year ago, however, and in a short time went through several thousand dollars. He then came to Nevada and obtained a position as time keeper on the government canal. He continued to drink after arriving here and last Saturday morning died after lying out on the ground all night.

PASSED FOUR HUNDRED MARK

Voters, Remember There Are Only Seven Days Left in Which to Register

The prediction made a few weeks ago that the number of registered voters at Sparks would exceed the 400 mark has come true, for yesterday there were 405 names on the registry list of Judge Pollock. In the short time that yet remains, a large number will still be added to the list, so there is no doubt but that there will be over 450 voters on the list, when the last day arrives.

Voters, remember that only a few days are left in which to register, and that if you fail to do so, you will not be allowed to vote next November. This is a presidential year, and every-body should take an interest in politics. If you do not register, you not only hurt yourself, but you fail to exercise a most precious right that anyone can possess. In order to give everyone an opportunity to register, Judge Pollock will keep the registrar's office open from 7 o'clock to 9 o'clock every evening.

SPARKS SCHOOL DID NOT OPEN

Fall Term Postponed Because Carpenters Could Not Be Secured

The fall term of school did not begin yesterday as the trustees had intended. The desks were not put in place because carpenters could not be secured to do the work. After much trouble the trustees succeeded in getting some men but they had no knowledge of the work they had to do. Sparks has had much trouble in getting the fall term started but it seems as though a limit had been reached. If no further delays occur the school will open next Monday.

Architect Kronick has completed the general plan for the new school house and has already begun work on the dimensions of the different buildings. He hopes to have everything arranged so that the contractors can begin work next week. The building will be of brick and will cost in the neighborhood of $30,000. When it is finished it will be a credit to the town of Sparks.

Building Operations

Carpenters have been idle and work of the various buildings now in course of construction has been at a standstill on account of the recent heavy rains. Now the carpenters have resumed their labors, and work in the building line will be pushed forward.

T. A. Brandon, F. L. White, A. B. Manheim, W. S. Long, C. C. Degman, Sam Mozingo, Phil Jacobs, Dr. R. P. Chandler, and E. Larke.

Such is the result of the semi-annual election of the Reno Wheelmen held last evening. The officers were elected by acclamation, receiving the unanimous vote of the club. With the exception of the Board of Governors, the newly elected officers are the same as last term. T. A. Brandon, F. L. White and Sam Mozingo, members of the old Board of Governors, were re-elected.

There was an excellent attendance and the best of good feeling prevailed. Preceding election the reports of the different officers were read and approved. The reports show that the organization is in a most prosperous condition, though of late there has been a lack of interest. This is one fault the club, having a membership of over 500, is now going to remedy. What is needed is more entertainment and the entertainment committee will begin work at once, thus insuring many pleasant evenings during the coming winter months. More life will also be instilled in the racing affairs of the club. This insures a lively season next year. These views were expressed in resolutions passed at the meeting.

At the conclusion of the election the semi-annual "luncheon" and smoker were held. There was an abundance of good thing to eat and from nine o'clock until late in the night, everyone made it a point to have a good time.

ROLLS ROLL MERRY SESSION

Reno Aerie Initiates Several New Members and Enjoys a Sumptuous Banquet

Reno Aerie, No. 207, Fraternal Order of Eagles, held a business and social meeting in their lodge room at Harmony hall last evening and several candidates were initiated into the mysteries of the order. After the new members had been shown the first elements of the order, the business of the evening was closed, the doors of the banquet room were thrown open, and for a couple of hours enjoyment reigned supreme.

So pleasant was the time that it seemed that the great eagles perched above the portals of the banquet room would scream with delight. The new members were surely glad that they had been taken into the ranks of such a crowd of jolly good fellows and it is safe to say that the large banquet room never contained a merrier crowd. The new Eagles' hall in the Blington building has been fitted up in excellent shape and the next meeting of the order will be held there. It is the largest and most pleasant lodge room in the city.

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES ARE CHEERED AT SPARKS

"I would have you remain closely to their own assertions, laborers of America. Judge the Republican party in the future by its action in the past. Depend upon it," he concluded, "that in the future George Nixon, Republican aspirant for United States Senator will continue to lobby to defeat the measures vital to labor as he has in the past and should he be so fortunate to worm his way into the National Congress, he will only have been awarded the power to be more effective in the work of defeating labor's ambitions."

The conclusion of Mr. McCarran's remarks was the signal for renewed applause and even after he had taken his seat the cheering continued.

Hon. W. H. A. Pike, candidate for District Attorney, was the next speaker. Many years of Mr. Pike's life were spent in Wadsworth. His popularity among the old timers of that town was again evinced and once more the new hall rang with enthusiastic cheers. Mr. Pike spoke on the live issues of the day, dwelling at length on the imperial policy of the Republican party, pointing out where national wealth and the flower of American manhood had been ruthlessly sacrificed in the greedy and uncalled for quest for foreign lands. Mr. Pike was repeatedly applauded and deservedly so, for he handled his subject in a masterly manner.

E. A. P. Johnson, the well known labor man of Elko county was the next speaker. He was tendered a hearty reception and made an earnest, convincing and interesting address on the questions of the day. It was a grand meeting and one that proves conclusively that the candidates will receive hearty support in the new town.

REWARDS ENLARGE

Gray, Reid, Wright Company Celebrates Its First Anniversary in Big Department Store By a Big Sale

The first milestone in the history of the big stores of the Gray, Reid, Wright Company was celebrated by a big sale and reception yesterday. From the time the stores opened in the morning until the close last evening, every department was crowded, not only with visitors and well wishers but purchasers as well.

As a souvenir of the occasion the firm presented each customer with an artistic stein. In all about six barrels of these were given away.

The growth of this enterprising firm in Reno is little short of the phenomenal. About four years ago Messrs. Gray and Reid arrived in Reno, opened a small store where the Cleator-Dexter Company is now located and began carrying a modern stock of goods and advertising the fact. From the start success was assured for the firm was enterprising, making it a point to carry a good stock as any store in the State. Additional clerks were employed as business increased, and their stock grew larger in proportion.

In January, 1903, the firm was enlarged by the addition of Walter Wright, one of the most experienced business men on the coast. In October of the same year the enlarged firm moved into its present quarters, the largest and handsomest in the State of Nevada, and equal to most of the big stores west of the Rocky mountains. Again success crowned their enterprise. Business has increased, despite the prophecy of many conservative people, until now additional clerks are being employed to handle the trade.

With the increase in its business the firm has not stood still, instead, during the past twelve months three new departments have been added to their store. The first upward move was the adding of a millinery department. A few months ago the firm took charge of the candy department and last Monday for the first time a shoe department was installed.

Truly this is a showing to be proud of and only goes to prove the theory that enterprise combined with judicious advertising is always crowned with success.

The people of Reno feel proud of the big stores of the Gray, Reid, Wright Company, and there is not one in the city but rejoices at the success the firm is meeting with. May they celebrate many more such successful anniversaries.

POPULAR RENO COUPLE MARRIED LAST NIGHT

The home of Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Dodge on North street on the South Side was the scene of a pretty little wedding last night when Thomas J. Litch and Miss Eva E. Clark were made man and wife. The wedding was very quiet, only a few intimate friends of the young people being present. The ceremony was performed by Judge Nash. Miss Etta Douglass acted as bride's maid and William Black, a well known young man of the city was best man.

After the words which made the young people man and wife had been spoken, a delightful wedding supper was served and all those present joined in wishing the young couple much happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Litch will leave this morning for Northern California, where they will spend several weeks. They will then return to this city where they will make their home.

Both young people are quite well known in Reno and have a host of friends, who will be surprised at the announcement of their marriage. The wedding was kept a secret and only the most intimate friends of the two young people knew when the event would take place.

Everybody is going to Prof. Holland's masquerade at Sparks tonight.

AN INDIAN YOUTH SLAYS LARGE LION

Special to The Journal

BLKO, Nev., Oct. 12.—News comes from Lamolie Valley, that an Indian boy named John Hurd, aged about 12 years, killed a big mountain lion yesterday. The animal measures ten feet in length and weighed over 200 pounds. The youth had only a small calibre rifle when he discovered the lion engaged in devouring the carcass of a deer.

Instead of running, the boy concealed himself behind a boulder, took careful aim with his rifle and fired. With a roar of pain the beast sprang in the air and toward the boy, who, thinking he had only frightened the animal, started to run for home. One the way he met several Indians who returned with him to the scene, finding the lion dead and within a few feet of the carcass of the deer.

THOSE NAUGHTY
LITTLE BABES

They Hang the Sophs in Effigy and Then Battle in Defense of the Dummy

Some little excitement and amusement for the upper classmen was caused by a mix-up of the two lower classes yesterday morning. The Sophs on awakening saw themselves hanging in effigy to a telephone pole on the campus. They at once proceeded to take it down, but being greatly outnumbered by the "Babes" were forced to make a temporary retreat. They were not to be beaten, however, and immediately after drill made a second attempt to obtain the dummy. This time they were met by Gen. Brown and Admiral Stanaway, old veterans of several such wars, who bravely withstood their merciless onslaughts and held the fort.

The "Babes," becoming encouraged by the support of these able leaders, gave vent to a victorious yell. This so infuriated the partially subdued Sophs that they immediately began the annihilation of their opponents. The yell was stopped and chaos reigned until reinforcements in the form of Dr.
Stubbs brought the fray to an end.
Undaunted by the great numbers, he attacked the flanks of both armies and put them to flight.

But for the intervention of the "Powers" the affair would have been a decisive victory for the Sophs, so say the Sophs.

The football game Saturday will be a lively one as the Olympics have beaten Stanford and played a close game with California. The Varsity boys are training hard and Coach Shorts is taking advantage of last Saturday's game by strengthening the weakness shown then.

The young ladies of the Junior class will hold an "At Home" at Manzanita hall, Friday, October 14th.

The regular monthly social will be held in the Gym Saturday evening.
The popularity of these socials is becoming more marked every year, and Manager Brambila has secured a large membership to the club, insuring a successful season.

Has Removed.
Mrs. C. S. Wentworth has moved her "Home for Invalids" from the corner of Sixth and Washington streets to 308 Chestnut street, in the old Congregational Church building, which has been fitted up with the necessary appointments for a first class sanitarium.
Mrs. Wentworth's success in the treatment of rheumatic ailments and her increased patronage made it necessary for her to change to more spacious quarters for the better accommodation of her numerous patrons.

Saved His Life
J. W. Davenport, Wingo, Ky., writes June 14, 1902: "I want to tell you I believe Ballard's Snow Liniment saved my life. I was under the treatment of two doctors, and they told me one of my lungs was entirely gone, and the other badly affected. I also had a lump in my side. I don't think that I could have lived over two months longer. I was induced by a friend to try Ballard's Snow Liniment. The first application gave me great relief; two fifty cent bottles cured me sound and well. It is wonderful medicine and I recommend it to suffering humanity."

ANNIVERSARY IS CELEBRATED

Old Professors and Students of Whitaker's Seminary Recall Former Days

Twenty-one ladies, all of the former students of the old Whitaker Seminary, gathered at the home of Mrs. S. J. Hodgkinson on North Center street last evening and celebrated the twenty-eighth anniversary of the founding of the institution.

A sumptuous banquet was served and while the different courses were being served the toast mistress, Mrs. John Michael, called upon the different ones seated at the table of friendship to respond to toasts. Before calling for the toasts, Mrs. Michael, who was one of the first professors in the old school, made the following remarks:

"Before calling for the toasts of this evening I would like to give you one of my own, 'The Old Girls,' may they remember the old teachers as faithfully as their teachers remember them."

May they never deserve any demerit but stand at the head of their class. May their happiness be as near 100 per cent as is possible in this world and may all their essays be marked A1.

May none of them be without a chosen companion dearer than all others with whom they may work not only in harmony but in joy. And some day when the long school day is ended may all their lessons have been learned so well that they may wait with confidence for the Well Done of the Master.

The dear old girls, sweet to remember, sweeter still to have beside us.

Mrs. Michael's words brought back to the minds of all present the happy days, when the old school was in its prime and all were students and professors together. The old building still stands on the heights above the city and although there is no school it is still known as Whitaker's Seminary but the old students and professors are gradually passing away and in a short time there will be no more members to gather at the festive board and commemorate the founding of the institution.

The following toasts were responded to by different members:

Lady Days. Mrs. Amelia Griffin Webster. A Little Girls School days. Mrs. Gertrude Martin Gregory. 'The Men, God Bless Them.' Mattie S. Conner. Song 'Roses After Rain.' Mrs. A. L. Layton. Letter from Grace Daggett Campbell. Old Time Essay. Mrs. Anna Hymers Bachelor Maids. Miss Della Boyd. Toast to Favorite Teachers. Margaret Mayberry. The program was brought to a close by the singing of Auld Lang Syne by all of the ladies present.

The following ladies were present at the reunion last evening:

Mrs. A. L. Layton, Miss Conner, Mrs. Scheeline, Mrs. Gertrude Gregory, Miss Clara Martin, Miss Clara Bender, Miss Anna Sundeland, Miss Della Boyd, Mrs. Hattie McNeilly, Mrs. H. J. Thyes, Mrs. T. K. Stewart, Mrs. H. H. Clark, Mrs. Ed Coffin, Miss Maud Thompson, Mrs. W. W. Webster, Miss Edyth Hurd, Miss Margaret Mayberry, Miss Flora Northrop, Mrs. Lenora Morand, Mrs. Scott Lake, Mrs. Sam Hodgkinson and Mrs. John Michael.

TRAINMEN ARE HURT IN WRECK

Caboose Rolls Down Embankment at Clipper Gap, Injuring Two Employees

Several cars on a west bound extra freight train were derailed at Clipper Gap at the west end of the snow sheds yesterday morning and delayed the east bound traffic for several hours. The caboose of the freight train was thrown over a steep embankment and the conductor and brakeman were badly injured. The track was covered with debris for some distance and it took a wrecking train from Sacramento over six hours to clear the wreckage away.

The train was running ahead of No. 6 when the cars jumped the track. Word was immediately sent to Sacramento and the wrecking crew arrived on the scene in a few hours.

The men in the caboose were first taken out and sent to the hospital in Sacramento, after which the work of clearing away the wreck was started. The cars were piled up between two steep banks in one part of the wreck and it was with great difficulty that the wreckage was removed.

No. 6, the east bound passenger, which should arrive in this city at 9:40 a. m., arrived yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The east bound trains were held at Truckee until the track was cleared.
